

Exhibitions in the East Wing:

May 11 – July 14

Natura Curiosa.

The American artist Brandy Kraft exhibits plants in a new way in her richly coloured paintings.

July 20 – September 29, Walks in nature.

Ten Czech artists present a great variety of pictures with emphasis on plants and nature.

How to join the Society of Linnaeus Hammarby.

The annual fee is 150 SEK for one adult, and 200 SEK for a family.

Payment can be made to our Bank Giro Account 5652-3699

Don't forget to include your name/ names, address and email-address.

A membership gives you free admission to Linnaeus Hammarby, the Linnaean Garden and the Linnaean Museum in Uppsala. It also includes a yearbook and information about various membership activities.

Visit our website at www.linneshammarby.se

Contact for more information:

Chairperson: Eeva Ingelög Lakomaa

eeva.lakomaa@gmail.com

Tel 070 9969233

Linnaeus' Hammarby 2019

Open:

May – August: Tuesday – Sunday.

Midsummer Eve June 21 closed

September: Friday – Sunday.

The exhibitions and shop are open 11.00 – 17.00 and the park until 20.00.

The café is open 11.00 – 17.00

(reduced selection Tue – Fri in May, in September café is closed on Fridays).

Admission: 80 SEK,

Society members: free admission.

Several guided tours are given during opening hours.

Linnaeus Hammarby is managed by Uppsala Linnaean Gardens, Uppsala University. Find more information on www.Hammarby.uu.se

Carl Linnaeus (1707-1778), our most well-known scientist, bought the estate in 1758 first to be used as the summer home for his family, but also to provide a home for his wife Sara Lisa after his death

Linnés Hammarby is situated 15 km southeast of Uppsala and can be reached by car in 15 minutes.

Buses 102, from Uppsala with destination Knivsta, and 186 with destination Lagga, stops at Linnés Hammarby vägskäl (cross-road), 2 km from Linnaeus Hammarby.

<http://www.ul.se/>

Sällskapet Linnés Hammarby

The Society of Linnaeus' Hammarby

Program 2019

Ill. Rosemary Wise

*Some of the guided tours are held in English.
Most of the society's activities are held in Swedish*

Some of the activities are made in collaboration with Uppsala University (Botanical Garden) and the Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences (SLU, Agrarian History) and the Uppsala County Board.

Each year January 10 at 13.00.

Gathering at Linnaeus' tomb in the Uppsala Cathedral

Laying of flowers, poetryreading and singing. Afterwards we gather at the Cathedral Café (Katedralkaféet)

Monday March 18 at 18.00.

Annual Meeting

At Sävja church meeting-hall
After the meeting we serve coffee, tea and a sandwich followed by a lecture, in Swedish, by Karin Hallgren Agr.dr En kåhlträppa ej att räkna - Grönsaksodling under 1700-talet".
(On vegetable growing in the 18th century)

Sunday April 14, at 10 – 14.

Volunteer Day

Come and help preparing the grounds in the cultural reserve now when the spring is coming. We clear the grounds from fallen branches and leaves. At the same time learn more about 18th century farming. Free snacks for everybody.

Sunday May 12, at 11 – 17.

The Hammarby Day

Familyday. Participate in botanical and historical walks and learn more about nature's three kingdoms.
Build shelters for the wild solitary bees.

Sunday July 21, at 10 – 16.

Summer Haymaking

Learn to use a scythe and rake at the hay drying rack. Visit the kitchen where also old varieties of vegetables will be sold.
Familyday. Haydoll- making work-shop.
Children can dress up in 18th century-like clothing.

Weekend-course in watercolour painting,

More information will be found at www.linneshammarby.se

Sunday August 11, at 17.30.

Concert at Hammarby (indoors).

Music from the 18th century with Carl-Håkan Essmar and Hanna Bendz.
Tickets including refreshments 150 SEK for members, 200 SEK for non members. Free entrance to the park.
Advance booking is recommended since the number of seats is limited.
Book by eeva.lakomaa@gmail.com.
Remaining tickets sold on the spot.

Sunday August 18, at 11 – 17.

Market Day

Family day. This market offers local produces, handicraft and old varieties of vegetables. Vegetable dyeing and spinning is demonstrated. Children can dress up in 18th century-like clothing. The rye is harvested. See the kitchen-garden and the old cottage-plants
Free admission for all dressed up i 18th century clothes.

Saturday August 31, at 11-16.

Hops, oats and barley harvest

Now the crops for brewing beer will be harvested. Learn more about hops and beer. Collect some hops for making your own "sleep promoting bag". You can also cut some oats to make a sheaf for the birds.
SLU Agrarian history and staff from the Uppsala County Board will guide you.

Saturday September 21, at 11-17.

Sunday September 22, at 11-17.

Apple Days

Find your apples in the apple exhibition with over 60 varieties. Or have you apples classified by the pomologists.
Pruning of fruit trees will also be demonstrated.

Sunday September 29.

Hammarby closes for the season.

The houses are open for the last day of this season.

Sunday October 13, at 10 – 14.

Autumn in the cultural reserve .

Bring your family and friends for an outing. The last vegetables are harvested. Rake, burn and help the agrarian historians to keep the Linnaean grounds open. Free snacks for everybody..